Mr. John Dougherty,
Chapel Hill, N.C.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of the 9th together with a copy of the one to the Boston Museum is at hand, as well as the cast of the Alexandrian decadrachm. It is impossible to be certain that the coin is genuine from your impression, but there is little reason to doubt that it is. Its condition, however, is against its having any great value. Fine specimens of these decadrachms can be had for from $2.00 to $5.00 in the coin market. I trust this will give you the desired information. The impressions and correspondence are returned herewith.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
